About: I am Dr. Randheer Singh, an Assistant Professor in the Department of Economics at the Faculty of Arts, Crafts & Social Sciences. With 7 years of experience in teaching and research, I focus on understanding the socio-economic dynamics of agricultural development, particularly in the context of irrigation and water management.

I completed my Ph.D. in Economics from Tanta University in 2018, and prior to that, I earned my M.Phil. in Economics from MDSU, Bikaner, in 2012. I also hold an MA in Economics (1999) and a BA (1997) from MDSU, Ajmer.

My research has primarily focused on the Indira Gandhi Nahar Pariyojna (IGNP) and its impact on agricultural production, particularly in the Hanumangarh district. I have published 10 research papers exploring these topics.
