About: I am Dr. Pooja Dhamija, an Associate Professor in the Department of Hindi at the Faculty of Arts, Crafts & Social Sciences. With 10 years of experience in both teaching and research, I have dedicated my academic journey to exploring various aspects of Hindi literature, particularly regional narratives.

I completed my Ph.D. in Hindi from Singhania University, Jhunjhunu, in 2013, following my MA in Hindi Literature from MDSU, Ajmer, in 2003. I also earned my BA from MDSU, Ajmer, in 2001.

My research interests are primarily focused on the craft of regional novels, which offer unique insights into the local cultures, languages, and social dynamics of specific regions. To date, I have authored 13 research publications in this area.
