About:

I am Dr. Sunita Swami, currently working as an Assistant Professor in the Department of History under the Faculty of Arts, Craft & Social Sciences. With 6 years of teaching and research experience, I am passionate about exploring the rich historical and cultural heritage of Rajasthan, particularly through the lens of religious traditions and institutions.

I hold a Ph.D. in History from Tanta University, awarded in 2023. I completed my M.A. in History from Maharaja Ganga Singh University in 2005 and my B.A. from the same university in 1999. I have contributed 3 research publications and participated in 3 academic conferences to date.

My primary research focuses on the religious traditions of Bikaner State, with special reference to its maths and temples, reflecting my interest in the socio-religious fabric and architectural legacy of regional India. My broader areas of interest include Temple Architecture and Cultural Heritage, Religious Institutions in Princely States, Socio-Religious Practices in Rajasthan, and History of Devotional Traditions.

Through my work, I aim to preserve and highlight the spiritual and cultural narratives that have shaped the identity of Rajasthan's historical landscape.
