About:

I am Dr. Anil Kumar, currently serving as an Assistant Professor in the Department of Economics under the Faculty of Arts, Craft & Social Sciences at Tanta University. With over 17 years of teaching experience, I am deeply passionate about the field of economics and committed to nurturing academic excellence among my students.

I hold a Ph.D. in Economics from Govind Guru Tribal University, Banswara (2022), an M.A. in Economics from Maharaja Ganga Singh University, Bikaner (2004), and a B.A. from Maharshi Dayanand Saraswati University, Ajmer (2002).

Throughout my academic career, I have authored 10 research publications and participated in 6 national and international conferences. My primary research focuses on the Role of Human Resource in the Economic Development of Rajasthan.

My areas of academic interest include:

- Electoral Trends – analyzing voter behavior, turnout patterns, and shifts in party performance across elections.
- Political Alliances – examining coalition formations such as the NDA and UPA and their electoral implications.
- Regional Dynamics – studying voting patterns across states and the factors driving regional political change.
- Leadership and Campaign Strategies – comparing political leadership, manifestos, and campaign approaches, particularly in the context of the 1998 and 1999 Lok Sabha elections.
