About:

I am Dr. Ashok Dharnia, currently serving as an Assistant Professor in the Department of Hindi under the Faculty of Arts, Craft & Social Sciences at Tantia University, Sri Ganganagar. With over 7 years of academic and teaching experience, I am deeply committed to the study and promotion of Hindi literature and philosophy.

I hold a Ph.D. in Hindi from Tantia University (2020), with my doctoral research focused on "Jambhoji Ki Vani Me Jankalyan Ka Vivechnatmak Adhyayan". My academic journey began with a B.A. from IASE, Sardarshahr (2010), followed by an M.A. in Hindi from JNU, Jodhpur (2013).

My research interests are rooted in the spiritual and philosophical teachings of Jambhoji, the founder of the Bishnoi sect. I am particularly focused on themes such as Jankalyan (public welfare), Pariyavaran aur Jeev Daya (environmental protection and compassion for living beings), and Vivechnatmak Adhyayan (analytical studies).

I have presented my work in 3 academic conferences and have published 3 research papers to date. My passion lies in exploring the intersection of language, culture, and societal values, aiming to inspire students and researchers to engage deeply with the rich heritage of Hindi literature.
