About:

I am Dr. Dheeraj Yadav, currently serving as an Assistant Professor in the Department of Geography under the Faculty of Arts, Craft & Social Sciences. With over 16 years of teaching and research experience, I am deeply committed to advancing geographical knowledge through both academic instruction and applied research.

I hold a Ph.D. in Geography from University Ganganagar (2021), an M.A. in Geography from Vinayaka Missions University, Tamil Nadu (2011), and a B.A. from Maharaja Ganga Singh University, Bikaner (2005). Over the years, I have authored 10 research publications and participated in 3 academic conferences.

My primary research focuses on the patterns of rural and urban land use in Sri Ganganagar, which reflects my broader interest in the spatial and socio-economic dynamics of semi-arid regions. My areas of interest include Rural and Urban Land Use Patterns, Geospatial Analysis of Settlement Structures, Regional Planning and Development in Rajasthan, and Human-Environment Interaction in Semi-Arid Regions.

Through my academic work, I aim to contribute to sustainable regional development and provide students with the analytical tools to understand and address contemporary geographical challenges.
