About:

I am Dr. Krishan Kumar, currently serving as an Assistant Professor in the Department of Hindi at the Faculty of Arts, Craft, and Social Sciences. With over six years of teaching experience, I am deeply committed to advancing Hindi literature and fostering a meaningful academic environment for my students.

I hold a Ph.D. in Hindi from Maharaja Ganga Singh University (MGSU), Bikaner, awarded in 2010. I also completed my M.A. in Hindi in 2006 and B.A. in 2004, both from MGSU. My academic journey has been driven by a passion for language, literature, and cultural expression.

My primary research interests lie in the narrative craft, tradition, and experimentation in modern Hindi stories, particularly focusing on the works of Uday Prakash. I have authored six research publications and participated in three academic conferences to date, contributing to the broader discourse in Hindi literary studies.
