About:

I am Dr. Mamta Gupta, currently serving as an Assistant Professor in the Department of Sanskrit under the Faculty of Arts, Craft & Social Sciences. With 8 years of academic experience, I am dedicated to the study and teaching of Sanskrit literature, with a special focus on its modern relevance and philosophical depth.

I hold a Ph.D. in Sanskrit from Maharaja Ganga Singh University, Bikaner (2018), where I also completed my M.A. in Sanskrit in 2007 and my B.A. in 2005. Over the course of my academic career, I have published 5 research papers and participated in 3 national conferences.

My research work centers on the logical analysis of generalistic literature in the context of qualitative prosperity in modern Sanskrit literature, reflecting my commitment to exploring how classical thought continues to influence contemporary interpretations. My areas of interest include modern Sanskrit literature, philosophical themes in Sanskrit texts, critical interpretation of literary works, and the evolving relevance of Sanskrit in present-day discourse.

Through my teaching and research, I strive to connect the timeless wisdom of Sanskrit with the intellectual and cultural needs of modern society.
