About:

I am Dr. Shilpa Rani, currently serving as an Assistant Professor in the Department of Hindi under the Faculty of Arts, Craft, and Social Sciences at Tanta University. With over 14 years of academic experience, I have dedicated my career to the study and teaching of Hindi literature and political thought.

I hold a Ph.D. in Political Science from SKD University, Hanumangarh (2022), and completed my M.A. and B.A. in Political Science from MGSU, Bikaner in 2009 and 2007 respectively. My research focuses on "The Vocal Role of International Organizations in Human Welfare in the Changing International Environment", reflecting my deep interest in global socio-political dynamics.

Over the years, I have published six research papers and participated in three academic conferences. My areas of academic interest include Vyangya Chetna, Adhunik Upanyas, Ragdarbari, and Samajik-Vaicharik Alochana. I am passionate about exploring the intersection of literature, satire, and societal critique through the lens of Hindi literary traditions.
