About:

I am Dr. Vijay Kumar Kaushik, currently serving as an Assistant Professor in the Department of History, Faculty of Arts, Craft & Social Sciences. With 5 years of teaching and research experience, I specialize in ancient Indian history with a focus on socio-economic structures and agrarian systems.

I earned my Ph.D. in History from Tanta University in 2022. I completed my M.A. in History from IASE University in 2009 and my B.A. from Maharaja Ganga Singh University, Bikaner, in 2007. Over the course of my academic journey, I have published 3 research papers and participated in 3 academic conferences.

My research focuses on the economic condition of farmers during the Gupta Age, offering an analytical perspective on agrarian life and the broader economic framework of that era. My key areas of interest include the agrarian economy of the Gupta period, land revenue systems and peasant life, socio-economic status of farmers in ancient India, and the impact of political stability on agricultural prosperity.

Through my work, I aim to deepen the understanding of India's historical economic foundations and bring critical insights into the everyday lives of people in ancient times.
